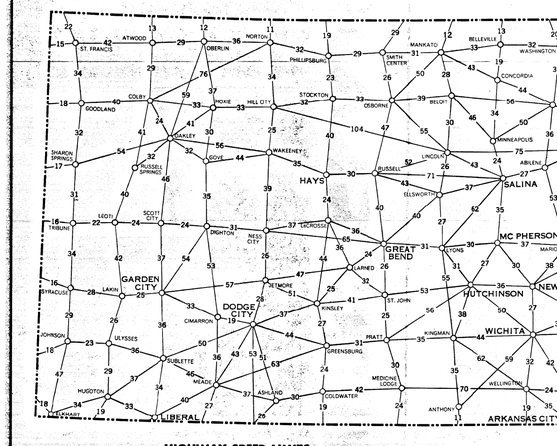
Mileage Map

Mileages shown are between central junctions of cities shown, measured via shortest US, K, or Interstate route combinations. Use of the Kansas Turnpike (a toll road) will reduce some trip distances.



HIGHWAY SPEED LIMITS

Unless otherwise posted, the federally imposed speed limit of 55 mph applies on all "K," "US," and "I" highways.

Speed limits in Kansas will revert to the previous state law when the federal law expires or is repealed.

Previous speed limits set by state law follow:

Cars, buses and small trucks: 70 mph day and 60 mph night on "US," or "K" highways; 75 mph day, 70 mph night, and 40 mph minimum (day or night) on "I" (Interstate) routes.

Trucks: 60 mph day or night "US," "K" or "I" routes. 40 mph minimum on "I."

Kansas subscribes to the Uniform Traffic Control Manual in its signing, delineation, and traffic law enforcement.

Principal enforcement agency is the 347-man Kansas Highway Patrol and cooperating with them are the sheriff patrols and in the cities are the local police departments.

Using the latest scientific aids available to enforce traffic laws including moving radar, aircraft and various analysis to determine blood alcohol contents, highway troopers do their utmost to protect the vast majority of law abiding drivers from the minority of motorists who operate their vehicles without proper regard for their own lives or more particularly for the lives of others.

"Service, Courtesy and Protection" is the code.
